CBA COMMERCIAL BROKERS ASSOCIATION

Washington Transition Course— 3 CE Hours

Every licensee who obtained a license before July 1, 2010 must complete a 3-hour Transition Course before renewing their license after June 30, 2010. This course explains the changes to the real estate license law that are effective as of July 1, 2010. It covers the new licensing requirements, the duties and responsibilities of each new type of licensee, new business practices, and how these new requirements affect real estate firms.

CBA is offering the Transition Course on a number of dates and locations that will cover the impact on business practices for commercial brokers and their firms.

Your Instructor:

Jeff Coop, J.D. is with Stokes Lawrence, P.S. law firm in Seattle, WA. His practice focuses on real estate law, licensing and brokerage. Jeff represented the Northwest Multiple Listing Service for 8 years as Legal Affairs Manager. Jeff was an asset to its members in dealing with professional rules and standards, real estate licensing, agency law and real estate contracts. He also managed arbitration and disciplinary functions and taught several real estate courses. Jeff graduated from the University of Montana School of Law with honors, where he was the Research & Managing Editor of the Montana Law Review.
